Just from Jimmy

Time! The concept of time is a constant in every day of our lives. All day long, time is on our minds. Jim Croce once said in a song, "if I could save time in a bottle", but no one can do that. The old saying goes "time marches on". God even has much to say on the subject. He reminds us of the "normal" span of time on earth (Ps 90), importance of redeeming your time (Eph. 5:16), and reminding us of His presence in time of trouble (Ps 9:91). You can't run away from time.

Just from Jimmy continued

It passes quickly and one day it will run out, either at death or when the end of time comes. That makes the present so important, Paul told the church in Corinth, “today is the day of salvation” (II Cor 6:2). The times may change, but time itself remains a constant. Don’t waste it, for it is precious. One last thought, don’t forget that time changes next week as we “spring forward” one hour! At this point in time I remind you: God is great, go with God.

Bro. Jimmy

From the Elders:

Some reasons we should attend Church, even when you may not feel like it.

Part 1

1. To hear the word. Hebrews 4:12

Hearing the word is vital to our spiritual well being and fellowship of believers coming together. We do not gather to be entertained but to hear the truth presented with sound doctrine. 2 Tim 4:2

2. To participate in worship. John 4:24

We are to come together as one body to worship the only true and living God. To truly worship him as he demands us in spirit and in truth. We are to sing making melody in our hearts, pray together, hear the word preached and participate in the Lord’s supper.

3. Because Iron sharpens Iron. Proverbs 27:17

Meeting regularly with other believers is a source of encouragement and strength. Working along side Christians in fellowship is a way to grow our love for God and others.

4. To exercise your gift. 1 Cor 12, Romans 12:6

God equips his children with gifts to serve Christ through preaching, teaching, encouraging, hospitality to administration. We should realize we are part of the congregation not only to receive but also to be a blessing to others.
